SYMBIOSIS PREMIER LEAGUE – SPL 3.0

CALM HUB

EVENT REPORT

ABOUT SPL

Symbiosis Premier League is an event organized by Center for Academic Leadership and Management (CALM Hub). Practical learning is an essential in today's world. Thus, to hone such practical skills in our students, CALM Hub continues to move towards this goal. The 2 day event that is SPL aims to achieve this goal in furtherance of the HUB's objectives. The event was held on 27th and 28th February, 2025, and involved an array of events that dealt with the concepts of development, marketing, management and budgeting amongst others.

ABOUT CALM HUB

CALM HUB was established with the intention to promote management among the students. As the logo denotes the singular finger pushing a person to the top, CALM HUB seeks to make their students stand out in various aspects. Originally catered to the students of BBA, it is now inclusive of BA students as well.

DAY 1 | Thursday 27th February 2025

PORTFOLIO PURSUIT

SPL started with its Portfolio Pursuit in the IT lab. the event started at 10:40 am where 12 teams participated. it is a simulation of the stock market which aims at improving trading skills. Unlike the conventional stock market simulations, this event is designed with the goal of studying and understanding core economic principles, money management skills, and make us aware of how the stock market actually operates. the software that was used was Neostox Virtual Stock the stock market actually operates. the software that was used was Neostox Virtual Stock Simulator, an online website which was used by the participants. Each group was given Rs. 5 lakhs to begin with. alongwith that money, the teams must spend at least Rs 4 lakhs on stocks. The remainder may be kept in the individuals checking account (including commissions). the teams were allowed to trade only those stocks listed on the National Stock Exchange (NSE) and Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE). Each group was provided with notepad and pen to keep a journal of their activities and thoughts, and a transaction history of all buys and sells. In addition, the groups were responsible for keeping track of the current portfolio's market value (plus the cash in the checking account). Due to the delay in trading data as prescribed by SEBI Regulations, the participants were not allowed to use their mobile phones and the trading view website in order to prevent unfair means. This was a criteria for evaluation. the event started as Nikhil sir rang the bell at 10:40 am and all the teams rushed into buying and selling stocks. the teams were given 1 hour and 20 minutes time to invest and sell. One of the main judging creteria of this simulation exercise was the amount of profit and the team that was able to make the highest profit made approximately 32 thousand rupees. The event encountered starting troubles due to internet connection at college, however the event went on smoothly. At 12 PM sharp the bell was rung and the teams were told to stop.

MOCK IPL AUCTION

SPL's most awaited and most grand event was the Mock IPL Auction. It was divided into two halves and both of them took place in the assembly hall. In the first half, there were 19 teams and they had to go through a quiz round to actually participate in the mock auction. Kahoot was used for the quiz. The ten teams who qualified the Kahoot elimination round were given the chance to pick their teams through chits and enter the auction.

The auction started at 1 PM. Chinmay Nimbalkar was the auctioneer and he began with the auction. The teams were provided with a small bat with the team logo on it and if they wanted to bid they raised their respective bats. The teams were given a set budget in which they had to build a team with a set no. of players. Their victory was dependent of their management of budget, their spontaneous decisions and their strategies. After a long session of biddings and selling, all the groups completed their team and formed their playing 11. That concluded the legendary Mock IPL Auction at 7 PM.

DAY 2 | FRIDAY 28th February 2025

SMARTICUS

Smarticus started from 9:30 AM in the moot court. there were a total of 9 teams who participated in this exciting quiz. Objective of this quiz was to test participant's general knowledge about various brands in today's market (how to best represent them). there were a total of 5 rounds, each of them with a unique theme. the themes of the rounds were FMCG, Food and cinema ,broadcasting, Travel and tourism and automobiles. in the first round, each team was given 2 questions each. A total of 8 teams qualified to the 2nd round which was based on fashion and movie industry.

The participants seemed determined to qualify and had to battle it out in a logo identifying round. The 7 teams which made to the 3rd round had to brainstorm the accuracy of the statements provided to them in a thrilling true or false round. The intensity of the competition relatively arose with the difficulty of the questions.

Finally 2 teams made it to the final round of smarticus which was based on a case study with respect to the American multinational corporation and technology company Google LLC. In the 5th round, there was seen a neck-to-neck competition between two teams and finally one team won by a slim margin, which concluded the event.

PITCH BIZ

Inspired by the popular TV show 'Shark Tank', this event aims to assess the skills of young innovators and entrepreneurs. This event is designed to test competence of the participants that is knowledge of their business, the uniqueness & originality of their ideas and their ability to present it in front of the sharks. The platform provides an oppurtunity for participants to think creatively, pitch with confidence and showcase their abilities to industry veterans. PITCH BIZ began at 2 PM sharp and ran untill 3:30 PM. The event saw participation from 4 teams of which Team SAKHA comprising of Krishna and Kavya secured the first position for pitching their idea of a senior citizen friendly mobile application named SAKHA. The runner's up position is held by team SUTRADHAR comprising of Dev and Anmol, SUTRADHAR was pitched as a website specialising in customised clothing for all age groups offering a wide variety of options.
