SLS, Nagpur Basant Panchmi – A Day of Knowledge

09 October 2024

Maa Saraswati, the goddess of knowledge, blesses those who seek to learn.

Symbiosis Law School with the assistance of the Cultural Cell, Symbiosis Law School Nagpur celebrated the occasion of Saraswati Puja on 09.10.2024.

Saraswati Puja, a highly revered celebration dedicated to Goddess Saraswati, the embodiment of knowledge, wisdom, and learning, was organized by Symbiosis Law School with assistance of the Cultural cell and administrative staff of Symbiosis Law School (SLS) Nagpur for the entire SIU Nagpur campus at the Central Library.

The primary aim of this event was to invoke the blessings of Goddess Saraswati for the academic year, promoting a harmonious atmosphere of learning across the campus. Additionally, it served as an opportunity for students, faculty, and staff from different institutes to come together and celebrate the essence of education.

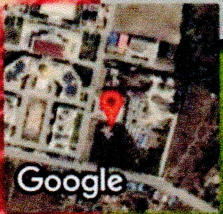

The event commenced at 10:00 AM with the installation of a beautifully adorned photo of Goddess Saraswati in the Central Library, symbolizing the core of learning and wisdom. The Central library was decorated with traditional flowers, and a serene ambiance was created, reflective of the cultural richness and spirituality of the festival.

The ceremony began with the chanting of vedic mantras, invoking the divine blessings of Maa Saraswati. The rituals included the offering of flowers, fruits, and sweets, followed by an aarti of Ganpati and Maa Saraswati. Teaching and Administrative Faculties and Students from different departments participated enthusiastically, following the rituals with reverence. After the completion of the Puja, the Prasad, symbolizing the blessings of the Goddess Saraswati, was served to students, faculty members, and staff in an atmosphere of camaraderie.

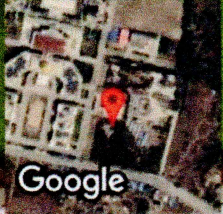

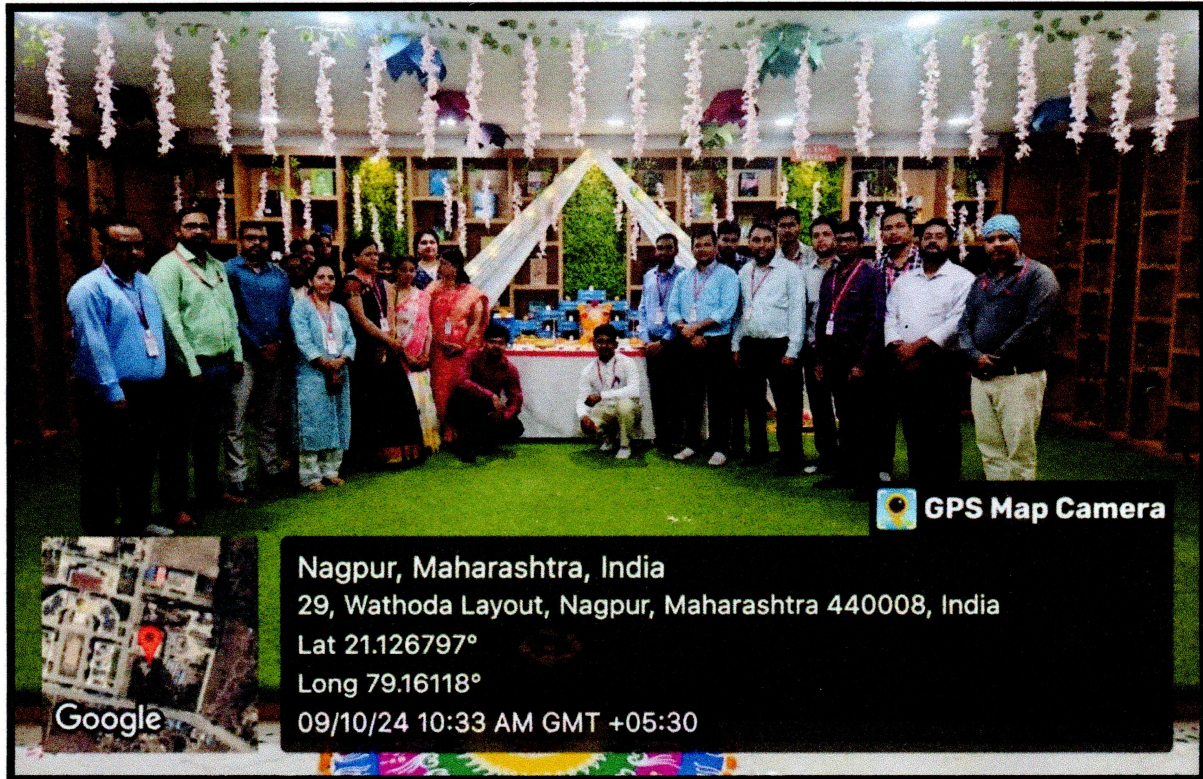

The Saraswati Puja fostered a sense of unity among the different faculties and students of the SIU Nagpur campus. It was a spiritual and cultural experience for all participants, creating an environment of peace and academic prosperity. Students felt more connected to their roots and cultural heritage, while faculty members appreciated the harmony that such an event brought to the campus.

The Saraswati Puja, organized by SLS Nagpur, was a successful and well-received event, reflecting the importance of tradition and spirituality in the academic journey. It set a positive tone for the upcoming academic endeavors, with blessings sought for knowledge, creativity, and success for all students and faculty.
