Faculty Development Program

7th February 2025

On 7th February 2025, a Faculty Development Program (FDP) was successfully conducted at Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur with the invaluable support and guidance of our esteemed Director, Dr. Sukhvinder Singh Dari. The program aimed to enhance the academic and professional competencies of the faculty members, fostering a culture of continuous learning and growth.

The FDP featured sessions focused on writing research proposals and getting research grants. The key highlight of the program was the insightful session delivered by the distinguished guest speaker, Dr. Tanima Dutta, whose expertise and contributions to academia greatly enriched the event.

Dr. Tanima Dutta is a respected academician with extensive experience in the field of Social Sciences. Her academic journey is marked by numerous research contributions, publications, and projects that reflect her dedication to knowledge advancement. Notably, Dr. Dutta has successfully secured project funding from the prestigious Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR), underscoring her strong research capabilities and commitment to impactful scholarly work.

During her session, Dr. Dutta shared valuable insights on conducting sampling for the research and various other methodologies, providing practical strategies and inspiring the faculty to pursue academic excellence.

Her interactive approach and real-world examples kept the faculty members engaged and motivated throughout the program. At the end, they also asked questions from the speaker to clear their doubts.

The Faculty Development Program proved to be an enriching experience for all participants, thanks to the unwavering support of the Director and the impactful session by Dr. Tanima Dutta. The program not only strengthened the faculty's academic and research skills but also fostered a renewed enthusiasm for professional development.
