SNAKES OF INJUSTICE, LADDERS OF FREEDOM

08th February, 2025

The Human Rights Cell of Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur, successfully organized the board game event, "Snakes of Injustice, Ladders of Freedom," on 06th February, 2025 aimed at educating students about global human rights issues through an engaging and interactive format. Inspired by the principles of Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam - the belief that the world is one family—the event sought to foster awareness, empathy, and critical thinking while emphasizing the importance of advocacy and resilience in the fight for justice.

The purpose of organizing the event was to educate participants about global human rights challenges through interactive gameplay that simulated real-world scenarios. Participants navigated legal, ethical, and social dilemmas, making strategic decisions to address injustices and advocate for equality. By fostering critical thinking, collaboration, and problem-solving, the game enhanced awareness and empathy while empowering participants to become proactive voices for human rights.

A total of 32 teams, each consisting of three members from the BA LLB, BBA LLB, and LLM programs at Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur, actively participated in the "Snakes of Injustice, Ladders of Freedom" board game event. The participants showcased remarkable enthusiasm, creativity, and a profound understanding of global human rights issues, making the event a resounding success.

The introductory session was conducted by Ms. Tanya Joshi, Faculty-in-Charge of the Human Rights Cell, who set the stage for an insightful and engaging competition. Throughout the event, Cell members facilitated the event, provided clarifications, and ensured fair play. The event concluded at 5:00 PM on 06th February 2025 after an exciting round of gameplay and interactions.

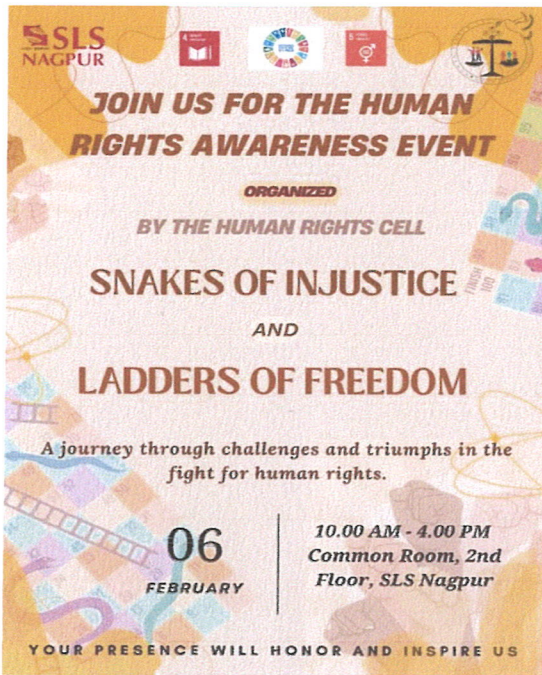

To acknowledge the dedication and performance of participants, E-certificates of participation were awarded to all participants. The winners and runners-up were honoured with medals in recognition of their outstanding performance. The results were officially declared on 08th February 2025.

The event was successfully coordinated by a dedicated team of organizing student members of Human Rights Cell from 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th Year - Sudeshna Bhatkar, Arya Goyal, Vaishnavi Tiwary, Thirunathan PL, Khushi Gautam, Kripa Agrawal, Siddhi Shukla, Tanushree Khangar, Mansi Punyani, Tushar Singh, Sargam Gandotra, Raghvendra Dixit, Ashwin Wankhade, Gungun Gurbaxani, Arihant Surana, Bhavya Paliwal, Krishna Futane, Ayesha Anjum, Aira Shetty, Yukti Sharma. Their dedication and strategic coordination played a pivotal role in the seamless execution of the competition, making it a memorable and impactful event.

The unwavering support and visionary leadership of Dr. Sukhvinder Singh Dari, Director, Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur, and Dr. Deepti Khubalkar, Deputy Director, Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur, were instrumental in the event's success. Their commitment to fostering an environment of learning and advocacy empowered students to engage deeply with human rights issues, making this initiative both impactful and inspiring. We sincerely appreciate the IT Department for their invaluable technical support, ensuring the seamless execution of the event.

This event not only contributed to the understanding of human rights issues among students but also aligned with the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) – Goal 4: Quality Education, and Goal 5: Gender Equality. By promoting legal awareness, encouraging the rule of law, fostering equal opportunities, and inspiring reflection on human rights and constitutional values, the event embodied the broader vision of sustainable development and justice.

The “Snakes of Injustice, Ladders of Freedom” event was a resounding success, effectively blending education and entertainment to create a powerful learning experience. The Human Rights Cell looks forward to organizing more such events to inspire and empower students in their pursuit of justice and equality.
