Prof. (Dr.) Sukhvinder Singh Dari

Professor and Director, Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur

As the Director of Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur, I am immensely pleased to introduce you to our bright legal minds, whom we have had the opportunity to train using our unique approach to education, by first getting down to the basics of legal learning and then supplementing it with the rich tapestry of experiences that will shape the personality and thought processes of the next generation of lawyers.

A budding legal mind that aims to become a successful lawyer understands that the most essential step to attaining that goal starts with acquiring qualitative knowledge of the important spheres of society. It is also extremely important for an aspiring lawyer to gain insight into the complete spectrum of legal education, by critiquing both domestic and international laws through an interdisciplinary and intersectional lens and complementing that knowledge with a deeper understanding of markets. It is precisely this type of lawyer that our institute hopes to create.

At Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur, we build upon the conventions of knowledge-acquiring and knowledge-sharing, the twin acts that feed into, and enhance, each other. The core syllabus of the students is designed to cater to the needs of the competitive, global and complex legal environment. This syllabus is supplemented not just with various value added courses and workshops, held by some of the best minds in the profession, but also with the innumerable internships they are encouraged to complete. These internships expose our students to different work environments, from the relatively humble-seeming district courts to the hallowed halls of the Supreme Court of India, from policy think tanks to corporate law firms, and allow them to gain a deeper understanding of the realities of the legal profession while also allowing them to bridge the gap between theory and practice. Additionally, after having undergone mandatory service internships with NGOs, our students have developed a greater appreciation for the lived realities of the communities in which they exist, allowing them to consider ways in which they can serve the society that has served them.

The modern legal world is dynamic, non-linear and complex. Only professionals with the passion for facing challenges, courage for embracing novelty and competence to be creative really excel in such a scenario. In order to instil this creativity and adaptability, the law school has ensured that students embark on the journey of self-realisation through the participation in several cultural and creative performances, which encourage them to think outside the box, and in sports competitions, which teaches them the importance of camaraderie and teamwork, in addition to keeping them healthy both mentally and physically. Additionally, through Moot court competitions and Mock trials, Client counselling and Med-Arb competitions, and model united nations and debates, the law school has attempted to unleash the potential within each student by encouraging them to try different things and develop skills which might have otherwise gone unnoticed, whether it be the art of argumentation or negotiation, collaboration or competition, students combine cleverness and empathy to come up with ingenious solutions to even the trickiest of problems.

Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur, therefore, inculcates in each of its students the ability to think in a holistic manner, perform effectively and deliver to the delight of multiple stakeholders.

I wish the very best to the current batch of legal professionals and warmly welcome all prospective recruiters to Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur's Placement Programme!

About Symbiosis International (Deemed University), Pune

Symbiosis is a family of academic Institutions imparting quality education for 50 years. TEACHING METHODOLOGY AND ASSESSMENT TECHNIQUES

The teaching-learning methods are essentially learner-centric, which include lectures, Socratic method, Activity Based Learning, field visits, seminars, group discussions, research projects, simulations, case studies, moots, mock trials and ICT-enabled learning by the international guest faculty and guest sessions by the experts.

With the focus on the holistic development of the students, special arrangements are made for experiential learning. The students get training, orientation and experiential learning through systematic internships in industry, High Courts, Supreme Court and non-governmental organizations. International Lecture series organised by International Cell empower students to become adept in global trends.

Assessment techniques are structured to infuse and inculcate critical thinking skills. The assessment techniques include tutorials, case analyses, situation-based problems, essays, seminar presentations, viva-voces, quizzes, drafting exercises, moot courts, mock trials, learning logs/diaries, computer-based assessments, simulated interviews etc. Assessments are targeted towards building industry-centric skills in graduates in order to equip them for their professional careers.

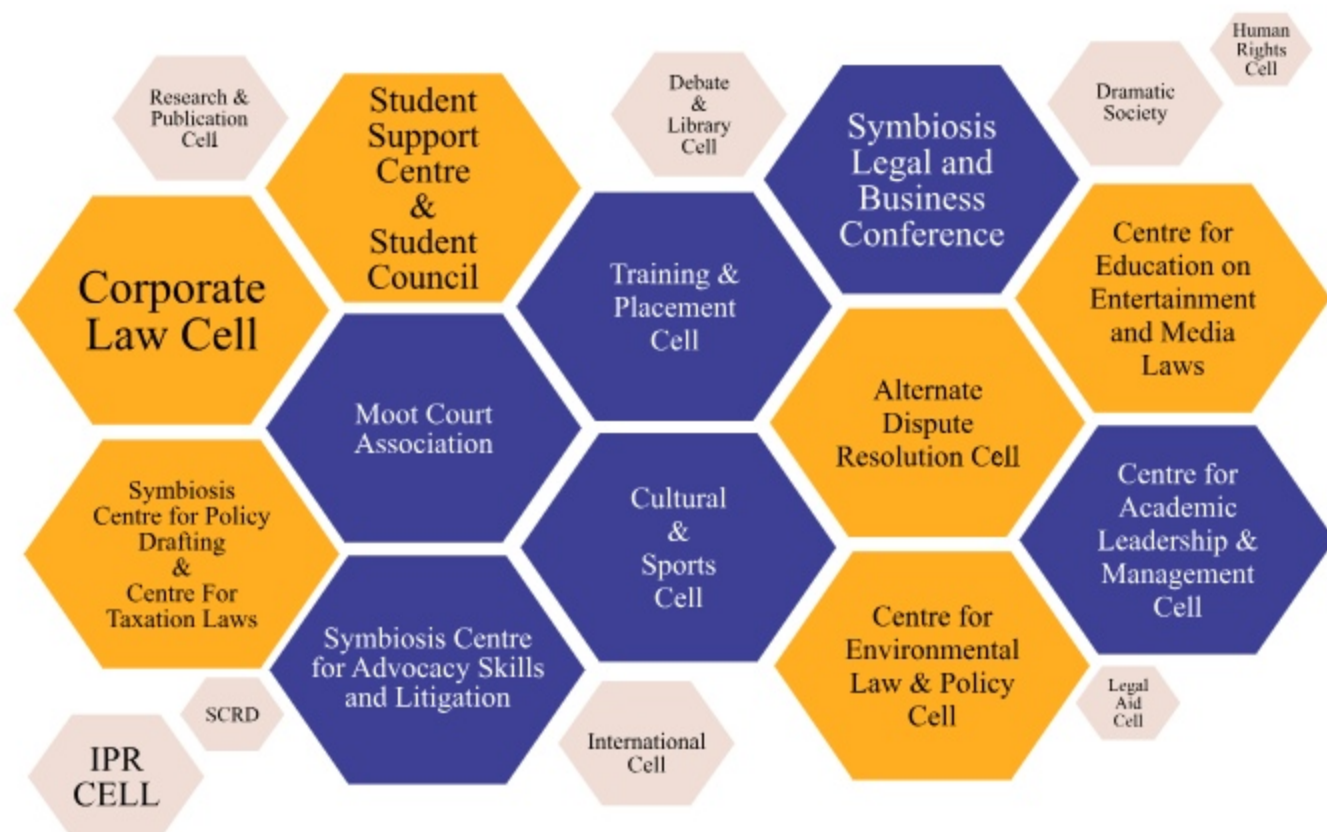

CENTERS AND CELLS

At Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur, emphasis is laid on providing students with avenues to learn and grow. The objective of the centers and cells is to provide an interface to areas beyond the curriculum.

The students, through these centers and cells, engage with seminars, workshops, research and advocacy on contemporary issues, and deliberations. These centers and cells are largely student-driven, with the faculty members guiding and monitoring their activities and functioning. They provide a promising avenue to instill diverse skills in students, including leadership, decision-making, critical thinking, emotional intelligence, and problem-solving, all of which are integral in any workplace. Additionally, collaborations with foreign universities and government agencies provide crucial insight to the students with regard to their functioning and role, and allow them to closely work with those agencies.

WORKSHOPS, TRAINING AND CAPSULE COURSES

As part of the efforts made by the Institute, workshops and training sessions covering a wide range of topics—from Corporate law, Drafting and Forensics to experiencing courtroom trials through theatre—have been held. Workshops and lectures by legal professionals and industry experts with diverse expertise in their fields have also been held to help students explore the diverse fields of law.

In addition to these workshops and training programmes, capsule courses have been conducted for students to be equipped with laws on contemporary socio-economic relevance. These allow students to delve deeper into subjects, armed with practical insights from the field. Sessions have previously been conducted on Mergers and Acquisitions, Banking and Finance Laws, Insolvency and Bankruptcy Law, Real Estate Law and Practice, Dispute Resolution further strengthen the student's understanding in the practical aspects of the law.

A variety of sessions have been conducted in order to harmoniously balance the practical approach with theoretical underpinnings of the law, in order to ensure that students gain access to transformational learning experiences.

Skills oriented sessions help the students acquire the requisite skill-sets for their professional growth. Sessions on drafting of notices, complaints, writ petitions, PILs, trademark applications etc give insights into the nuances of the intersection between legal theory and practice. Sessions on Client counselling, mediation, negotiations additionally contribute to honing students' communication skills and ability to critically evaluate any situation or problem.

CULTURAL ACTIVITIES

Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur does not operate on a “all work, no play” motto. Indeed, recognising the need for holistic development of students, the law school has organised several extra-curricular activities, allowing students to excel in both spheres of their law school careers. The Cultural Cell and the Dramatics Society have been created with the goal of nurturing art and culture by encouraging self-expression and creativity in the student body.

The Cultural Cell is mainly responsible for organizing cultural fests and events, as well as celebrating festivals. In doing so, it celebrates people from diverse cultures, their core set of beliefs and values, and spreads the spirit of camaraderie and cultural sensitivity. It helps in bringing out the hidden talents of students by providing them with a platform to showcase and cultivate their talents. Additionally, attempts in familiarizing through Court-room trials, social issues are being undertaken to sensitize the students.

SPORTS ACTIVITIES

Sports and games are essential for physical and mental well-being and also help in promoting sportsmanship, camaraderie and healthy competition which affects the overall holistic development of students. A dedicated Sports cell is created with the aim of teaching the importance of regular fitness activities through participation by students and staff for their overall well being. In furtherance of its goal of being a health-promoting university, Symbiosis International (Deemed University) has established state-of-the-art infrastructure for tennis, football, basketball, volleyball, badminton and other sports at the Nagpur Campus, ensuring that students get proper training for their most preferred sports. The sport's committee takes huge pride in organizing an annual inter-college tournament and virtual sports activities. The activities align with the University's commitment to being a Health promoting University, promoting the spirit and essence of Wellness amongst all stakeholders.

NATIONAL COMPETITIONS

Moot Courts are essential in a law students' journey. It provides a platform to work on their research, oral advocacy and arguments. The Moot Court Association organized Intra Moot Court Competitions and National Moot Court Competitions. The Intra competitions primarily build a competitive spirit and co-learning. A National Moot Court Competition is organized annually, witnessing the participation of students from various law schools across the country.

Moot Courts have previously been organized in collaboration with the Maharashtra State Biodiversity Board, Competition Commission of India and the National Human Rights Commission.

In addition to the Moot Court Association, the Alternate Dispute Resolution Cell caters to the growing relevance of ADR in the legal profession. Workshops on negotiations, Client Counselling, Mediation and Arbitration provides an insight and strengthens the students' knowledge and skill-sets. A unique initiative is the National Med-Arb competition providing a platform to the students across the country to be exposed to the intricacies of the Alternative Dispute Resolution methods including Hybrid ADR mechanisms. The two editions of the Med-Arb competition have been organised in collaboration with PSL Advocates and Solicitors, New Delhi.

RESEARCH

Along with activities, Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur contributes in making qualitative and basic knowledge available to the students along with research on critical aspects of law.

It has organised several Seminars and Conferences. Students, research scholars and academicians from various law schools participate in these events. The students get to meet new people, form valuable connections and adapt new ways of thinking. It serves as a venue, not just for learning new topics but also for forming different viewpoints and perspectives individually. Students get a chance to talk with subject-matter experts by discussing the pertinent themes of that particular subject after the end of the event.

A National-level Multi-Disciplinary Conference has been previously organised, which witnessed participation from various law schools and colleges across the country. Additionally, a National Seminar on 'Identification of Abusive Relationships and Prevention of Domestic Violence' was organized in collaboration and with the financial support of the National Commission for Women, Delhi.

An International Virtual Seminar in collaboration with Faculty of Shariah and Law, Villa College, Maldives discussed the challenges faced by the Migrant workers during the COVID-19 pandemic. A virtual International Conference on 'Women Rights in Developing Countries: Issues and Challenges' to address the status of women and protection in developing countries was organised witnessing international participation. The second edition of the International Conference was organised on the theme "Womens' Rights in Emerging Societies' in collaboration with Jus Corpus, American International University, Bangladesh and Shri Ramswaroop Memorial University, Lucknow.

The Institution also hosted the South Asian Postgraduate Law Conference addressing a range of socio-legal issues prevailing in the South Asian regional context. The conference was organised in collaboration with the University of Colombo, Sri Lanka.

A National Conference on Artificial Intelligence, Technology and Law was organised on the theme 'Impact of Artificial Intelligence and Technological Advancements on the Justice Delivery System in India' in 2024.

COLLABORATIONS

Collaborations and MoUs with Governmental Organisations, Non-Governmental Organisations and other academic institutes across the globe have strengthened the quality of teaching-learning process and exposure students receive during their course. Previous collaborations include

- National Academy of Direct Taxes, Nagpur
- Department of Justice, Ministry of Law and Justice, Government of India
- Competition Commission of India
- The National Human Rights Commission, Delhi
- The National Commission for Women, Delhi
- The Maharashtra State Biodiversity Board

RECRUITMENT PROCESS

Students are exposed to various legal domains during their internships in their five years of undergraduate study. Apart from these internships, the numerous workshops, guest lectures, moot court competitions, and law conferences that are organized by the institute ensure that students are equipped with the necessary knowledge and skill-sets for their professional careers. Exposure to the institution's Cells and Centres ensures a right mindset and acumen to address the challenges at the workplace.

The Training & Placement Cell takes up the responsibility of matching industry requirements and students' skill-set. Stepwise procedure for placements is given below:

CV Verification

Screening based on organizational requirement
