Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur organized Guest Lecture on

“Control of Administrative Functionaries through the process of Judicial Remedies”

On 29th of October, 2021, SLS, Nagpur invited Adv. Devendra Chauhan, a practicing lawyer before the High Court of Bombay and the Supreme Court of India, to speak to the students about a topic that was part of their Administrative Law syllabus.

Dr. Sukhvinder Singh Dari, Director of Symbiosis Law School in Nagpur, greeted Adv. Chauhan. He acclaimed the speaker for accepting the invitation to deliver the lecture on such an important concern in his welcoming remarks. He underlined that Symbiosis always tries for an address from an industry expert to bridge the gap between theory and practice.

Adv. Chauhan's excellent talk included a variety of subtopics related to judicial control. He goes over the purpose of sending Notice and how to frame it as a crucial instrument for taking legal action against administrative authorities. He also considered the Ouster clause, recalling Lord ATKIN's remark that "Finality is a nice thing, but Justice is better.".

Adv. Chauhan covered Writs, Locus Standi, and intricacies pertaining to it in his immaculate way. A brief question and answer period followed the presentation.

Dr. Shilpa Sharma, Assistant Professor at SLS, Nagpur moderated the session and proposed Vote of thanks.
